

Job Description

Role: Project Manager / Engineer

Reporting To : Senior Manager: Projects

Job Purpose:

Working within the Projects department to provide complete project management of automation systems from receipt of order / contract to final acceptance at customer location.

Duties & Responsibilities:

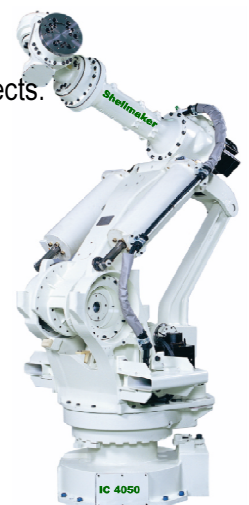

- Start (receipt of order) to finish (final acceptance on site) responsibility for given projects, including;
 - Providing the direct link role between VA Tech and customer.
 - Providing the direct link role between VA Tech Sales Department and internal functions.
 - Progressing of Engineering, Operation's and Customer support department to ensure project objectives are being achieved.
 - Responsible for customer project review meetings and objectives.
 - Responsible for achievement of factory acceptance tests (VA Tech location).
 - Responsible for achievement of onsite installation and final acceptance.
- Maintain communication with the customer on project status including;
 - Preparation & management of schedules and other project related documentation.
 - Occasional worldwide travel.
- General Project support to VA Tech.
- Adherence to company policy and procedures.

Essential Skills & Experience:

- Significant experience in managing customer projects.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Demonstrated technical understanding and approach to engineering projects.
- Experience in manufacturing and / or industrial automation industry.
- Self-disciplined approach to achieving objectives.
- MS Project and Microsoft Office.

Desirable Skills & Experience

- Experience of working with international customers.
- Sub-contractor selection and management preferred.
- Project management for industrial equipment preferred.

Job Description

Role: Project Manager / Engineer

Reporting To : Senior Manager: Projects

Qualifications:

- BEng / MEng Degree qualification preferred.
- HNC / HND with additional experience.

Key Attributes:

- Flexible manner to adopt new challenges and input from peers and colleagues.
- Self-driven for progressive and continued learning and development.
- Keen to accept responsibility and accountability.
- Diligent and committed to achieving project and company goals.
- Problem solving, both as part of a team and individually.

